

Grandmaster Eddie Wu Kwong Yu

Leads a Certified Instructors Class

Ann Arbor
August 30, 2014

Grandmaster Eddie Wu Kwong Yu visited the Ann Arbor Academy briefly on Saturday, August 30, for a class with Sifu Genie's disciples and the school's certified teachers. During an intense two hours, he worked with us on upgrading various forms as well as our understanding of the interaction among breath, chi and movement. We learned a lot, and have much to work on. He also discussed teaching with us, and offered some ideas for the 80th anniversary of the Hong Kong school which will take place in 2017. Thank you, Grandmaster!

Thanks to Grandmaster for teaching us.

Thanks to all who want to teach Wu Style Tai Chi Chuan.
